Thunder Mountain By Chris Hasney

Paul Soper took the Life Master of the month honors, and Marc Hay regained his usual spot as non-Life Master -- for the last time. Playing knockouts with Paul and teammates George Willis and Katy Vaughn Marc earned enough gold points to earn his gold card as an American Contract Bridge League Life Master. Way to go Marc and kudos to your team!

There were only four percentage games in March. Larry Scott and George Willis almost reached 70% with a 69.5% game (we don't round up), Kaye Dean and Gale Peck got close with 68.5%, Paul Soper and Katy Vaughn had a 66.8% game, and Julie Montemeyor and Don Hard scored 66.2%. Such results are not easy to achieve. Congratulations to all.

I/N Corner

Thank you to everyone for turning out to the sectional tournament - the IN events were very well attended. Congratulations!! See the results page for lists of winners in each event.

The unit is pleased to announce that Marge Curvin is back as your IN rep. Keep watching this column for the latest in IN news and upcoming events.

Unusual vs. Unusual by Ron Morris

Unusual Versus Unusual is a convention otherwise known as Unusual Over Unusual or an Invisible Cuebid. When opponents' make an Unusual Notrump (or Michaels Cuebid) overall showing a two-suited hand, many players employ invisible cuebids of the opponents' implied suits and other treatments to bid effectively. While several methods exist, here is one popular treatment:

1	A bid in partner's suit or a new suit is competitive without showing game interest
2	A cuebid of the opponents' lower implied suit shows an invitational limit raise of partner's suit, typically showing 5 cards in the suit not implied by the opponents
3	A cuebid of the opponents' higher implied suit shows game forcing values, typically showing 5 cards in the suit not implied by the opponents
4	A double shows the ability to penalize at least one of the opponent's implied suits. Any subsequent double by the partnership is for penalty
